Where does the insurance cover apply?

The insurance cover applies:

- ✓ in Poland and in connection with travelling across Poland (organized trips),
- ✓ worldwide, depending on the country of the travel destination specified by the policyholder. The territory covered by the insurance is specified in the insurance certificate.

What are the insured's obligations?

The insured is, without limitation, obliged to:

- contact the Help Center before taking steps on their own;
- deliver the required documents to PZU SA;
- provide all data necessary to arrange for the assistance needed;
- provide Help Center physicians with access to necessary medical information;
- follow the recommendations of the Help Center, furnish information and necessary powers of attorney.

If the insured or a person acting on their behalf are unable, for reasons beyond their control, including due to a fortuitous event or force majeure, to contact the Help Center by phone, they are obliged to do so within 7 days from the date on which contact with the Help Center became practicable and to give the reason for being unable to contact the Help Center.

How and when to pay premiums?

Payment of a premium is the responsibility of the insured. The premium is paid on a one-off basis.

The premium is paid at the time of purchasing a flight ticket via www.lot.com

When does the insurance cover start and end?

The insurance cover starts on the day following the conclusion of the insurance contract, but no earlier than on the day following payment of the insurance premium and no earlier than at the time the insured begins travel (ultimately leaves home for the purpose of directly commencing travel).

The insurance cover expires, without limitation:

- 1) at the end of the insurance period specified in the insurance certificate, but no later than at the time of returning home or to a medical facility located in the Republic of Poland;
- 2) upon the insured's death;
- 3) on the date the insurance contract is terminated by agreement of the parties;
- 4) on the date the policyholder's statement on termination of the insurance contract with immediate effect is delivered to PZU SA.

How to terminate a contract?

The insurance contract can be terminated at any time by agreement of the parties to the insurance contract.

The policyholder may terminate the insurance contract at any time with immediate effect by submitting a relevant statement to PZU SA.
